Intense energy,
Sincere enthusiasm, and vivacity
Spark her presence. She is devoted to
Her class, her profession—and chocolate chip cookies.
Always there—friend, “Coach,” or “Mom”—
She is unwilling to compromise ideals.
Personal counselor—love of life, funny faces,
Fire hydrant exercises, Baskin-Robbins—Bob . . .
Ever involved with Salem and the community.

The Ladies of the Class of 1976 and the Sights and Insights staff dedicate Sights
and Insights 1976 to Ms. Susan Mauger.

Viewpoint

To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under the heaven . . .

Enjoyment: the junction of the intellectual
And the social in our lives . . .
A balance tangibly developed and expressed,
Sustaining us from beginning . . . to end.
It is time to create and encourage enjoyment.

Viewpoint

A time to break down, and a time to build up . . .
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak . . .

Participation: the medium
Through which all progress is accomplished,
On campus and off.
Through active expression of doubts . . .
And new ideas
Archaic structures fall . . .
And fresh concepts rise.
It is time to intensify participation.

A time to plant,
And a time to pluck up that which is planted . . .

Achievement: the birth of individuality
As the seeds sown in the classroom
Germinate, mature, and are harvested.
It is time to nourish achievement.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh ...
A time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing ...
A time to love, and a time to hate ...

Friendship: the wheel
Of ever increasing circumference,
With each spoke painted a separate color;
A wheel turned by the spirit, heart ...
And mind.
It is time to foster friendship.

Viewpoint

A time to mourn, and a time to dance ...
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Community: our immediate universe—
The whole infinitely greater
Than the sum of its parts—

Searching as one for that which is missing.
As any part of this incredible union is lost,
We grieve for both the part and the whole.
It is time to recognize this interdependence.

These are the times of our lives—our seasons—
The moments of our purpose.

Kem Mims and Zel Gilbert,
Co-chairmen of Orientation

Orientation 1975: this year, an effort to help freshmen not only find out where their meals were ... but also where their minds were and why. For the Committee, Orientation was months of planning, and days of A.M. to A.M. work ... and excitement. For the freshmen, Orientation meant days of total confusion and despair and eager anticipation. An effort was made this year to focus on "Why a Woman's College?" (and perhaps: "Why ME at a Woman's College?"). The success of Orientation 1975? It can only be measured by the Class of 1979.

ORIENTATION 1975

FOUNDERS' DAY: THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Class of '76 finally wins Founders' Day competition

Melissa Holliman/Founders' Day Chairman

Holly Jereme, Jan Guiton,
Kathy Watkinson, Cindy Parker/Class Chairmen

A.M. 7:00—The Seniors take a noisy jog around campus and encounter memorable obstacles: fire extinguishers and spider webs of string, compliments of second floor Clewell and Babcock.

7:30—Sisters Dorm hosts soiree for Seniors with strong stomachs.

9:00—Breakfast in the Refectory officially opens the day and allows a glimpse of what is still to come.

11:00—Entrance onto the hockey field:
'79—Shades of the Wizard of Oz—Tin Man and the courageless Lion included.
'78—Sophomores sport orange and yellow—and no one rains on their parade.
'77—Juniors take everyone out to the ball game. Joe DiMaggio would have been impressed.
'76—The Greatest Seniors on Earth (thanks to Aggie Cowan) on parade in their Circus featuring Debbie Knight as one very hot elephant and E.A. McConaughy with her now famous bear skin.

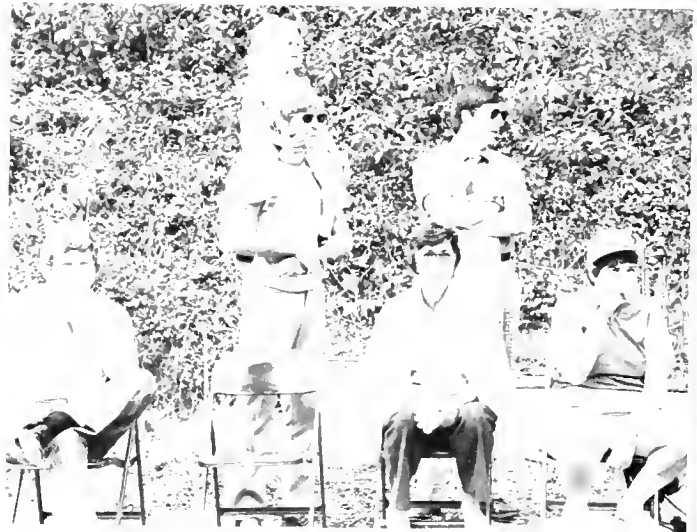

P.M. 12:00—Lunch in the square is followed by Dan-salems' flashy, fleshy can-can routine, the Archways, and Mr. Magic.

1:45—Games on the hockey field highlight the day with Salem's rendition of the sack race, caterpillar walk, demolition booby, doughnut eating, etcetera.

7:00—Skits and songs: Freshmen lead the way following their yellow brick road with Sophomores in hot pursuit on roller skates (sorry Ms. Manger). Juniors sing about the one thing near and dear to the stomachs of all—FOOD—and one notable Senior hatches from an egg.

9:30—T.O.G. and Rittenhouse Square blasts prove Salem students to be incredibly wild—a perfect ending to a remarkable day.

HALLOWEEN

Thursday—a hockey game with hot apple cider and Ms. Manger's fantastic pumpkin cookies . . . fortune telling with Ms. Pence-Sokoloff . . . bobbing for apples and pumpkin carving . . . Jim's tasty witch's brew in the refectory . . . a reading of the best Halloween limerick . . . the Archways' pumpkin carols . . . costumed prizewinners . . . the Maydell, bonfire, and Dr. Lazarus telling ghost stories.

Friday—a Halloween party for some children in Babcock, Bitting and Clewell.

Saturday—sitting in Clewell watching the thrilling "Dial M for Murder."

Movies in the Maydell . . . Warren and Bodle . . .
 Breakfast at midnight with a raffle for free dinners at the Zevely House . . .
 Barbecue chicken and the Archways in the square . . .
 Dancing to the music of "Sunny Day" in the refectory . . .
 A shag, bump, and twist contest . . .
 Folk music with Salem alumna Sally Spring in the Maydell—
 An exciting weekend for all Salem students that will not be forgotten.

CHRISTMAS

JANUARY TERM

January Term 1976—a time for the arts, physical fitness, and mental expansion for many Salem students. On and off campus, courses offered not only a chance to learn but also a chance to relax and have fun while learning. Some students chose to travel this year—to California, the Virgin Islands, England, and New England. Others remained on campus and solved "Puzzles, Games, and Problems," made beautiful music on the piano and organ, took care of their bodies in "Aerobics and Nutrition," and broadened their communicative skills through sensitivity training. To other students, Salem meant the chance to find out what a women's college is really like—apparently the Colgate men loved it.

FRIENDS

PEOPLE

Dr. John Chandler
President of Salem College and Academy, 1971-1976

On January 15, 1976 Dr. John Chandler announced his resignation as President of Salem College and Academy effective June 30, 1976. Upon leaving Salem, Dr. Chandler will become President of Scripps College in Claremont, California.

Before coming to Salem Dr. Chandler was vice-president of the Danforth Foundation and had previously taught at Dartmouth College and the University of California at Los Angeles. He holds a Ph.D. in theology and literature from the University of Chicago and is an ordained minister of the Episcopal Church.

During his presidency, Chandler helped to insure the stability of Salem financially and academically. This was done primarily through the creation of the third Century Fund. Other institutions established were the Special Education Center and the Lifespan Center for Women. Improvements were also made in the Development Office and Salem's financial assistance program.

Even though Dr. Chandler's stay has been short his work will have a great impact on Salem College. Keeping in touch with our 200 year history Dr. Chandler has utilized his skills to keep us in touch with the fast pace of the 1970's. More than that his friendliness and frankness led to a unique understanding between him and students. His office door was always open to hear students speak or protest. Respectfully, he would listen and give his advice. But even more, he would take us seriously—not as students alone, but as adults.

ADMINISTRATION

Janis I. Somerville
Academic Dean, 1973-1976

On June 30, 1976, Janis Somerville left her three year position as Academic Dean of Salem College. Following her resignation, she returned to Pennsylvania, her home state, in order to finish her Ph.D. dissertation.

Before becoming Academic Dean in 1973, Ms. Somerville was an assistant in academic affairs at Salem and conducted a study for the Institute of Undergraduate Curricular Reform. Prior to her arrival at Salem she had held several related positions including associate dean and director of planning at Newton College in Newton, Massachusetts. She had also served as assistant academic dean at Newton, as director of the North Carolina Human Resource Development Program, and as assistant university planner at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio.

Ms. Somerville was actively involved in committee work at Salem having boosted changes in both the school's curriculum and in important academic policies. Interdisciplinary majors, independent studies, night classes, and a renovation of the Honor Society were just a few of these changes.

Salem is strong enough to exist without her because of her interest in the projects of both the students and the faculty. A stronger link between the two has been built. Those of us who knew Dean Somerville and believed in what she did for us and for future students will miss her greatly. We wish her luck in her current work.

IN MEMORIAM

*Icy May Hixson, B.A., M.A., P.D.
Academic Dean, Salem College, 1943-1973
Professor of Classics, Emeritus*

My first year at Salem was Dean Hixson's last one, but I remember her well. Her office door was hardly ever closed. She always had time to talk, to advise, and to comfort. She was objective about courses, about majors, and about living in general. She had high standards and she expected everyone else to have them too.

At night it was not unusual to see every window in Main Mall dark except for Dean Hixson's office. That single light was a mute reminder of her dedication to Salem College. When she left Salem, a sense of dignity and grandeur left with her.

With her death, Dean Hixson has become a part of the traditions of Salem College. It is ironic that the last class she worked with is graduating in the same year in which she died. We will take something precious with us from Salem which no class after us will have. Our own private memories of Dean Hixson are ours to keep and treasure, no matter how small they are.

Catherine Delbridge

*Barbara Behrens Hills, B.A., M.A., Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Psychology, 1960-1975*

Barbara Behrens Hills was a member of the Salem College Faculty for fifteen years. During that time she demonstrated her excellence as teacher, scholar, administrator and friend.

If her colleagues could find one word to describe her, it would be LOVE. Her world was a world of loving and caring. She not only taught her students, but demonstrated her personal concern for each one of them. She loved her family and was a devoted wife and mother of three children. She cared about the community and served it with distinction.

As chief Psychologist for the Child Guidance Clinic, she attended to the needs of very special children. We, her academic colleagues, knew they were being treated by a clinical psychologist of both heart and head.

Barbara Hills loved life. She shared that zest for living with her family, students, colleagues, and clients. It was as if she had been touched with a special gift to share with others. And this she did.

We, her colleagues, are saddened by her untimely death. The world is a bit poorer because Barbara Hills is no longer with us. On the other hand, the world is much richer because she lived in it. We salute her and pay this tribute to her being a loving and caring human being.
